

Mrs. Barbara C. Polly

June 4, 1934 - March 18, 2016

Barbara Creasy Polly, 81, passed away on Friday, March 18th at Holston Valley Medical Center.

Born on June 4, 1934, she grew up in Lynchburg, Virginia where she graduated from E.C. Glass High School. She attended Emory & Henry College where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and met her future husband, Brownie. Upon graduation and after marrying Brownie, she taught elementary school in Richmond while Brownie attended dental school at MCV.

She moved to Big Stone Gap in 1958 and she joined Trinity United Methodist and the chancel choir and became fully immersed in the community. As a member of the Big Stone Gap Music Study Club, she was instrumental in the production of annual Broadway musicals consisting solely of local talent and played the female lead in sixteen productions.

In 1964, when the outdoor musical drama "Trail of the Lonesome Pine" began, Barbara played the lead role of June Tolliver for the first five seasons. That began a lifelong relationship with the drama's parent organization, Lonesome Pine Arts & Crafts, Inc. In 1970 when John Fox Jr.'s sister passed away at the family home in Big Stone Gap, she helped negotiate the purchase of the home and created the John Fox Jr. House & Museum. She became President of Lonesome Pine Arts & Crafts, Inc. and served in that role until recently.

In 1967, she was instrumental in chartering a Cub Scout Pack in Big Stone Gap. She remained involved in scouting for 18 years as a Den Mother and a scouting leader eventually receiving the Silver Beaver Award, the highest award in scouting. That Cub Scout Pack continues today.

In 1977, Barbara returned to teaching English at Powell Valley High School and instructed the One Act Play team for the next two years. She then left teaching and joined Don Wax Realty and began selling real estate and eventually became a broker. She bought the firm, reorganized it and named it Lonesome Pine Realty, eventually becoming the largest real estate company serving four counties. She was named Realtor of the Year in 1999 for the Southwest Virginia Association of Realtors. She sold the company in 2000.

Barbara was the first female President of the Emory & Henry College Alumni Association. In 2003, Barbara was named to the Board of Trustees of Emory & Henry.

She was predeceased by a daughter, Tamara Lee Polly, and her parents, Vernon and Ruth Creasy. She is survived by her husband, Dr. Brownie Polly, Jr. She also leaves a sister, Shirley Baber of Lynchburg, Virginia, and a brother, Kenneth Creasy, of Burlington, North Carolina, as well as sons, Brownie E. Polly, III and his wife, Connie, of Roanoke, Virginia; Wesley T. Polly and his wife Lisa, of Big Stone Gap, Virginia; and John V. Polly, of Los Angeles, California. She is also survived by grandchildren, Wesley T. Polly, II, and Colston E. Polly of Big Stone Gap, and Katherine "Kit" Polly and Brownie E. Polly, IV of Roanoke.

The family will receive friends from 4-8 on Tuesday, at Trinity United Methodist Church (East First Street S & Wyandotte Ave) in Big Stone Gap.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday at Trinity United Methodist Church in the church sanctuary with the Rev. Terry Goodman officiating.

Burial will follow at Powell Valley Memorial Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that gifts be made to Lonesome Pine Arts & Crafts, Inc., P. O. Box 1976, Big Stone Gap, VA 24219 or a charity of your choice.

“ A mentor to me in the 90's when I played June Tolliver for several years. My dad rebuilt the bleachers and the cabin during those years. She gave me the courage and inspiration to step outside my box of just singing and take on the role of June. She saw something in me that I did not see myself. She was right. Those years were the best times of my younger years. My late son played my little brother "Bub" each night. He loved her so much. Together, they are now walking the streets of Heaven. I will miss her so very much.

“ I will always be grateful to Barbara Polly for her support of the John Fox, Jr. Literary Festival and for all of her work in sustaining the cultural heritage of this region. Big Stone Gap and southwest Virginia are better places because Barbara was here to rally so many people in common cause to advance the common good. Her spirit, kindness, and public service will be greatly missed by everyone in this community.

Barbara never seemed to become discouraged by the magnitude of a community project or the obstacles she faced in making a project successful. She had the ultimate "can do" attitude. She was equally talented at standing on a stage or pulling together an excellent meal (or cookbook) to raise funds.

Barbara had a gift for using small town resources in creative ways and she leaves a wonderful legacy behind through her many decades of service to Lonesome Pine Arts and Crafts. My heartfelt condolences go out to her family.

"Well done, good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

“ "Fiddler on the Roof," "Annie Get Your Gun," "The Pajama Game," and how many more!! What a special treat it was to share those with Barbara during the 1970's plus many hours with the Methodist Church Choir. And oh those cantatas! But nothing was more special than to be able to visit with her this past October when we returned to BSG for the "premier." Our condolences go out to the family.

“ So very sorry to hear of Barbara's passing. I loved working with her in "The Trail," and in several musicals as well as other community events when we lived in Big Stone. She was lovely, gracious, generous, talented in many, many ways and so very strong. She will be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Mary and I have known Barbara for many decades as friend and, professionally, as a realtor. In both capacities she has always been most gracious and a joy to work with. She has indeed been a gift to us and, indeed, a gift to the whole Big Stone Gap and area community. We will miss her deeply -- as will so many in the community. We send our condolences to her family. All are very much in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

“ She cared for her town and her community and was always there for me when I needed some help or advice on something I was involved with and always had a kind word to encourage me. She was like an adopted mother and I will miss her and her smiling face. May God be with the family at their time of need.

“ It was one of the pleasures of m life to have worked with Barbara on Trail of the Lonesome Pine. She was the essence of Southern class and charm; a beautiful smlle and a kind word. My prayers to Brownie and the boys in their time of loss. Barbara was one of those special links to my past in Big Stone Gap. She will be sorely missed.

“ Originally from Big Stone Gap, with much of my family from there, I have known of Barbara and Brownie about all of my life. Barbara Polly has always been an iconic name in Big Stone. I will always remember her beautiful voice singing at my parents' funerals, for my father, Walter Vermillion, in 1991, and for my mother, Virginia Vermillion, in 1996. I want to express my gratitude for her kind gestures during those times and it will never be forgotten. My condolences to all of her family. Thank you.

“ I speak in behalf of the Master's family, who most have left this earth for a better home in Heaven, but I was born in Big Stone Gap and my association with Barbara was when Jack Gibbbs would invite me to come back home to join the Community Chorus at Christmas time and sing with them I was always honored to sing with Barbara at the end of the concert. My Mother and brother Tommy sang with her to in many of the Broadway show the Music club presenter and in many concerts and in The trail of the Lonesome Pine. She was so very kind to me, and my family. I remember her speaking so many kind word about Tommy at his funeral so many years ago..I thank her for that. She will be greatly missed! My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Patsy Masters Adams
