“ My Younger brother Glenn is sorely missed. He had a knack of making people laugh, especially his niece's and nephew's and more recently his beautiful grand daughters and great niece's & nephew's. I remember when he was about 5 or 6 our parents took us all to the little league field where our eldest brother George and I (Greg) played little league baseball. Dad would pitch to us and our mom, barehanded, would catch. Since neither George or I was really any good at batting, mom did a lot of catching. lol There is an old 8mm film of Glenn running to first and, as I recall, the rest of the bases. He looked so comical tearing up the bases as with that type of film the speed wasn't true. I'm glad I have that memory along with so many more that I can smile and even laugh about - more and more one day. I miss you Glenn. I'm sure you are reunited with baby Julie, please give her a big hug and kiss from her favorite uncle. Greg
