Bernice was born May 5, 1924 in Bonny Blue Section of Lee County, to the late Jess and Eura Williams. Bernice's life epitomized kindness, generosity, and service to others. She was a devoted member of the Big Stone Gap Heritage Church of God. She loved her God and her church. She served as a Sunday School teacher, choir member, and leader of countless church activities. She volunteered at the John Fox Jr. House, and was a "Pink Lady" at Lonesome Pine Community Hospital for many years.

At the age of seventeen Bernice began serving others, by traveling alone on a bus and train to California to be with her new husband, Gip. He was in the Navy. During this time while in California Bernice volunteered as part of the World War II effort, as an original, "Rosie the Riveter" making parachutes, and installing rivets in the cock-pits of B52 Bombers.

Years later when she retired, she continued to serve her friends and co-workers as chairman of the Westmoreland Veterans Association.

Throughout her life Bernice cherished being with her family. Family members never left her home without her offering food, gifts, or support of some kind. She delighted in hosting dinners and holiday get togethers.

Bernice really enjoyed spending time with her son, Stephen, and her grandson, Jesse. At the age of 87, Bernice first experienced the joy of riding a motorcycle with her beloved son. She enjoyed sharing her memories of this experience; exclaiming, that she had never “ Bernice was true Christian lady. A household name around Big Stone Gap, and a great American. God granted her a long and gifted life. I was fortunate to have known her at Westmoreland , Church, and she worked for our family business a while after retiring at Westmoreland. I cherish those memories very much, and extend my prayers and condolences to the family. A great all around lady.

“ I have so many memories of Bernice, from our years at Westmoreland Coal to the times we planned meetings for Stonega Veterans. She looked forward to meeting at her house and treated us like family. She always spoke so lovingly of Steve, Cindy, and the handsomest sailor in the Navy, her grandson Jessee. My thoughts and prayers go out to Cindy and Jessee as you grieve yet another loved one gone. Bernice was the very essence of love!
