“ Peggy Sue

Such a radiant lighthouse. My heart rejoices your life. So Peggy, with the new lightness of Angels Wings, go with your magnetic laughter and dance on the stars. Jesus needs you to be an Angel. Forever our Precious Little Sister.

Peggy Sue, you lived your life as if you were wealthy, yet we grew up modest. Now, I see what you saw. "WE were the wealthy" for being in your presence.

Your wealth has been defined in your Legacy. I celebrate the committed love for your Sam, the beautiful loving mother you are for your children, along with devotion and happiness for your family. Always happy and ever kind. We gravitated to your gentleness. You have touched everyone you ever met with true KINDNESS. The role model for us all. To speak only with true kindness. You would never allow yourself to have a cold heart. Truly from the depths of my heart, I believe that you never had unkindness in your sweet vocabulary, gentle girl.

Your pain has always been private with God and You. Few would realize that life has given you nearly insurmountable challenges. Because you Peggy Sue, laughed with kindness at ADVERSITY. So today, my fondest memories overwhelm my heartache. We, your Brothers and Sisters, rejoice you my Peggy Sue. Our beautiful little sister, from the beginning, destined for greatness.

You gave to us with your kindness, charm and millions of giggles. Millions, millions, millions and millions! Joyful laughter has followed you everywhere; while you played in the rain or gazed at the sky as you lay flat, hiding in the tall grass. You climbed trees, swam the mountain ponds, ventured mountain trails and even celebrated being barefoot in the dusty roads of summer. You'd run so fast that you would fall. Then you would bounce up and go again. For hours on end. Invincible you were. Celebrating all of life's happiness.

One Little Angel awaits for you to hold him. Remembering, as we mourned the loss of our Baby Franklin Jr., you cried and prayed! I found you, a small child, sunlight sparkling off your golden hair - with a handful of mint leaves by the creek. Praying to God and telling little Franklin you would carry him in your arms, once you get to heaven. He's there waiting for you.

With your unmatched faith in God: Heaven awaits the Little Giggling ANGEL with a most radiant smile. I BELIEVE THAT YOU ARE WATCHING OVER YOUR FAMILY FROM THE HEAVENS.

My world suffers the Huge Void you leave behind. We miss you so very much! We are better humans having been blessed with your presence in our lives.

*Love you forever Peggy Sue!
XOXOXOXOXO*

SO

Danny, I am so very sorry to learn of the passing of your mom. She was everything Frankie said she was. I wish that I had known so I could have sent my condolences in a timely manner. I am so sorry for the emptiness that your family must be feeling. God be with you and yours. Aunt Sharon

“ From: Danny Jack

I have thought about what I shall say, I have a heavy heart, and way too much to share about this amazing Mother, Wife, Sister, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Aunt, cousin, and Friend. My Grandmother was amazing hard worker. I remember as a little kid, I was granny's little man, and the memories we shared over the years. I didn't just lose my grandmother, but I lost a friend, and granny I have cried my eyes out, and I have had ask the good Lord why??? But I still don't have that answer. I remember as Sam five years I could remember you staying with us, and we would stay up late writing him, while watching my favorite TV shows Law and order SVU, and I can recall you saying what is this tv show about?? I sat there explaining it to you, and as you was watching it and seen what the show was about, you said child I don't know why you would want to watch this kind of shows, then I look at you with my big blue eyes and said because I want to be police officer!!!

Then I remember Dad, Seth, and I got you things for new Apartment in Appalachia, and then five years Sam wasn't there I stayed with you, and I was a wild kid. I would come to you home, and clean it too to bottom, then I would cook, and the look on your face you was blew away how cleaned I got you place....

Then when they were nothing for me to do, I would find me something to do it didn't matter if that was moving things around, cleaning walls, or simply re cleaning you home!!! You always thought you had to pay me for my work, and I would simply look at you and say Grams I don't want you money, I did this out of love, and plus I'm OCD, and ADHD so I always had to do something!!!

I must say I was such a granny boy, and when you seen me in a suit or dressed up, you would say how handsome I was just like my granddaddy Danny Ray Cline Sr. I never got to meet that man, and I needs me close to you because from my parents, and you I would hear amazing stories about him!!!! I feel like this is all a nightmare, and I wish someone would wake me up, so I could pick up the phone and call you. Yeah sure we had our disagreement, but I still always loved you!!!

I don't care what anyone may say about you, because I know the person my grams was, and that was truly amazing human... You shown me, how much you could fight, from Sam being away, to your heart problems, to dad losing his leg!!! My love will never change for you, and I will dearly miss you with every piece of my heart, because you were my best friend and Grandmother....

You knew when something was wrong, you would tell me let praying about it, and we would just do that, your love for the Lord was so powerful, and I can remember it didn't matter where you was you didn't care to prey, and I can remember you praying in the bathroom, and falling asleep and we would hear like boom, and we would come knock on the door, and ask if you needed any help, then you would say no grams fine I fell asleep praying. I love you even more for showing me to not be afraid to talk to God anywhere I might be, because the Lord will listen to us anywhere we are at. I thank you for that!!!

This Dove granny, is just for you, and this what I'm saying with this peace of line. Everyone is meant to fly, so grams it's your time, it's your time to shine. So spread your wings across the universe, and keep on flying with grandad Danny Ray, and

My brother Patrik Ray, granpap Bill H Cline, and while your flying, I know you will be our guardian angel watching over our family.

I love you dearly Peggy Sue Owners Brown, my grandmother, and I miss you dearly with everything in me, May You Rest In Peace my 🙏🙏🙏. This isn't goodbye, so that's why I'm going say goodbye. I'm simply going say until we meet again someday be my graudian angel my beautiful, smart, funny, kind, sweet, smoking hot grandmother. Love you so much...
