“ I agree with all the tributes that I've read and then some. I kept calling her as much as I could, as I do others, because life is short and nobody knows when. And then it's too late, but I did call. We liked each other. I knew her a long time, and she always came and did service for a very special program when I asked that I wouldn't have known her; thanks to the great John H. Condolences to her family and if you need to connect with me let me know here. Sean

“ River was a remarkable woman who gave freely of her time, energy, talents, and above all, love to help hundreds of people in distress. As the chair of a non-profit board, she helped me become a much better board member than I thought I could be. She also was delightful with a wry sense of humor that made our challenges easier to resolve for the best result for all. We all will miss her, yet she leaves a legacy of service and love that will influence future generations who, though perhaps they will never hear her name, will be supported by her critical contributions and boosted by her indomitable spirit that imbues our organization. With my most sincere sympathies to her family and close friends and with my deepest gratitude to the many who cared for her with love through the last several years. Robert P.

“ So blessed to be able to spend time with River and another, since deceased, friend driving from NY to Phillie and back, sharing jokes and stories. She was a special person who inspired many.

“ River was an important mentor to me and a dear, dear friend. Her work and service to others were far-reaching and she touched many, many people's lives. Few people ever made me laugh as hard as she did. I will miss her.

Peace and love to her family and friends, especially to those who cared for her in recent years. Thank you.

“ River was a very bright light for a non-profit we both served. I remember her enthusiasm and devotion to the cause when she became a Trustee and mentor to many. Much love and support to her friends and family on growing this incredible, strong flower, River Lightwomoon. Rest In Peace.

“ Although I hadn't talked to River in a while, I was just thinking about her recently. I will always, always treasure the times we did spend together. So many gifts, to so many. Deeply grateful for the shoulder she provided at a time I really needed one. Prayers to all the family, from deep in the heart of Texas.

“ While it is deeply saddening that our friend of many decades is no longer here with us, she is very much alive in my memory. River always brought unexpected light into my and other peoples lives.

With gratitude,
