“ Albert was a man of great faith. He loved sharing his faith and love for the Lord. He was a walking testimony!! I'll always remember him sitting on the porch playing his guitar and singing his hymns. If he wasn't singing, he was listening to his gospel music on the radio or playing his CD'S. He always had a big welcoming smile and hello for everyone. He never saw a stranger. I shared many meals with him through our 43 years as neighbors. He was so appreciative and grateful for every little thing you did for him. I'll miss him but I know he's walking on streets of gold waiting for us to join him there. He's seeing face to face now with the Lord!! What a sight he's beholding!!!

Rip uncle Albert. I will never forget You and your contagious laugh. My mother which was your niece loved you so much and she thought the world of you. I remember her and my dad singing in church with you. I know you are rip in heaven with my mom and dad.

“ Albert, (Alb) as we called him, when he lived in Keokee, was such a Godly man. I can remember him playing his guitar 🎸 in church. He came from a wonderful family. I know he is rejoicing with Jesus, and shouting all over heaven. Go rest high on that mountain Alb.

“ Kentucky Avenue will never be the same without Albert. I've known him my entire 42 years of my life. I'll always remember him sitting on his porch playing his guitar and accordion and singing. All of us in the neighborhood including Albert would sleigh ride down my driveway and through his yard. He was a great neighbor and always there to help if needed. If there are guitars in heaven I know Albert is already up there playing and singing. He always shared his faith in the Lord with others.

“ He was a good man. I only had the privilege to meet him once but my Isaiah would speak of him often after coming home from church. R.I.P Albert you will be missed by many.
