“ Amy was my bestest friend all through school and our lives. She was the sweetest friend anyone could have. While growing up, she always loved to tell stories as she said she was gonna write books one day. She always wanted to have a house full of kids as she absolutely loved kids. She used to even talk about wanting to be a mechanic. She was definitely a tough one! She didn't let anyone tell her she couldn't do anything if she wanted to. I will truly miss her. As life takes us all in different directions, we still remained good friends and kept in touch. Rest in peace my sweet friend! I will love you always!
