Andrew was authentic and enigmatic. Truly gifted and passionate about life.

He enjoyed the outdoors, ATV stunting, skateboarding, bmx bikes, race cars and racing. Aspiring pyrotechnician, entrepreneurial small business owner and self-titled certified you-tube mechanic. He took great pride in his workmanship and excelled at carpentry and home repair. There wasn't much he didn't excel at, if he wanted it, it was his. A lover of music and art; humorous and kind.

Andrew was full of love, passion and strength. He was solid in his faith and lived fearlessly. He was loved, respected, and will be greatly missed by many.
