“ Bertha and my mother we're best friends in the short time they knew each other. Bertha was like my second mother. I loved her dearly. I some times cut her hair, took her shopping many days and we would talk about everything and laugh so hard. Bertha would share her younger days with me when she would walk everywhere instead of ride. She was such a blessing to be around.

Bertha is gone but never will be forgotten. So thankful I met her through Judy & Frankie. She and I developed a friendship. I loved Bertha.
