“ My love, thoughts, and prayers to Trish and the Jones Family. May you find strength in your faith and knowing God is there for you each and everyday. Bill was a wonderful father, I remember the smile and light in his eyes when he saw Trish enter the room... as her roommate many years ago, I was Blessed to know how deeply he loved her!!! Hold on to those wonderful memories! !

“ My condolences to Bill's Family. Our Mothers and their sisters were very close, so we cousins spent many visits in Anderson, IN, together when we were growing children. Although not seeing each other, does not mean not thinking about our cousin, Bill. Patricia I am so sorry for your loss may God be with you and Bill's family.

“ Blessings to your family as we remember in loving memory, our friend, Bill. He was an awesome, always the same no matter how much time had passed since the last time we crossed paths, friend! He was the only person who could cut my son's hair when he was a very young little boy. Josh would say, " I ont Bill to cut my hair".. love him and love you all. God be with you for His comfort and peace and understanding!

“ I met Bill through his daughter, Trish. We always had a great time discussing "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" drama - talking about what was different from the last year and how the play evolved through each season. Until a couple of years ago, he attended the first and last production each year and would notice the progression of the actors. He was a great man and I will miss him very much. My condolences go to his large family.
