“ Our 5th Christmas apart. The tree still stands tall not an ornament out of place. The last time you put up a Christmas tree. Im not sure will ever take it down. It gives us a little hope that your still around. You promised you would never leave but I know it wasn't by choice but it hurts so much. We still don't celebrate Christmas except the part where we still do our Angel kids. That tradition will always remain where we help others because it brought us so much joy and taught the kids its better to give than receive. We want you back. Are we selfish. We four shared so much love. Dont worry baby we find a way to keep you with us in everything we do. We know you so well that we're always saying daddy would of said this. We came by big stone park the other night. I asked the kids if they wanted to walk it and see the lights. They said you know what dad said when he was in the hospital and we were walking at night. jakobe said you know dad said for us to get out of that park at night and get home and he meant now and we left. so kids think we can't go there anymore. There so grown now and your missing it. Jakobe Reagan and I are suffering without you. I beg God every day and I know thats wrong but I miss you. I hope your enjoying Heaven but who wouldn't be. we can't wait to be with you again this time forever. Merry Christmas our heart. We love you so much.

“ So its December 20th again. I dont know how the worse day of my life keeps rolling around so fast every year.It seems like I barely make it through it and its here again. Not to mention struggling through every day just one second at a time.This day has a very significant meaning to me and my children. Its been 5 years since Jesus called my man my wonderful husband and our children's father home.While alot of people look so forward to this month alot of people dont.We used to decorate our entire house beautifully for Christmas. Now we have a Christmas tree that hasn't been taken down in 5 years because it holds to much of a memory for us.Billy loved Christmas and it was the first thing he put up and decorated that year he got so sick so it remains standing tall and every ornament in place Some may think its silly to hold on to that but to us it was a beautiful day that we choose to remember together.Theres some days I look at it and would like to throw it out the door because im angry he's not here to see it.Then other days I look and it and remember. I remember all the love he put into this tree to make it pretty for us.Thats the way he was.Everyday he was alive he gave us love and beauty. He was one of a kind an original. Us four shared so much love for one another. I guess thats why we still suffer the way we do.Truthfully we didn't expect to still be here this long after he passed but we are.Everyday knocks the breathe out of us and we relive that day over and over again. My son never stops crying and discussing his dad my daughter's anxiety has been so bad this month and as for me I beg God to let me bare their pain which im not sure if I could take anymore but to heal them I would try my best.Unfortunately if you live long enough we all experience this.Some worse that others.Were very thankful and grateful for the 20 years God gave us with each other. We couldn't even imagine not having memories. Some we laugh with some we cry but there ours and only ours.Were very happy we met and made them.Its our faith in God that keeps us going. The fact that will see him again. It gives us something to look forward to.We know Billy is in Heaven because oh how he loved our Lord and Savior and we do also so we strive to get their also.Keep my family in your thoughts and prayers today if you dont mind.Say a little extra one for my Children if you dont care.Remember to hold the people close that you love because tomorrow is never promised..We love and miss you Billy Wells but thats because our love was rare.Enjoy your day in Heaven and we're going to try and get through this one the best we can. But for certain we will be thanking God for everyday we have a loving each other as he loved us.

Happy 4th of July my true dad. I miss you very much of how this has happened for almost two years. I'm still in a lot of pain of you gone to another place. I get angry, throw a fit and have meltdowns over that ventilation accident that the doctors have to set up. They let you suffer in there unconscious. I never get to say goodbye to you because of this covid crap that has gone too far. This is literally the worst pain I ever had in my entire life. It was very stupid for the doctors to put you into such suffering that I can never forgive. It just isn't fair. This tragic backstory is probably gonna to be a secret since i'm going Scrooge on every Christmas year and any holidays. I hope we meet again. Don't know we're. Don't know when. But I know we'll meet again some sunny day. Love your favorite son and Bob. Jakobe Caden Wells. I salute you.

“ Mine Jakobe and Reagan's heart is carrying a heavy load today. Today is Billy's birthday and it's his 2nd that he's spending in Heaven. I've learned from our loss that no time doesn't make it easier it only causes you to suffer more. We've been left with a big hole in our heart that will never seal. Billy was by far the best dad husband ever. They were nothing he wouldn't of done for our family. He made us laugh so much with his goofy jokes and pranks. He was always right beside us protecting and watching out for us. Billy is hands down a hero to us. We thought he hung the moon he was so special. 21 wonderful years we had together. We always said we were each others side. I was like the front and he was the back. Just like a coin. To say he's loved and missed doesn't even explain how we feel. We are empty inside just trying to survive one day at a time but not living just waiting for us all to be reunited again in Heaven. Our lives together meant everything to us. We were truly the definition of a great family. We miss our fourth. You my love were my soulmate and the greatest dad to our children. I'll never understand why you had to go but I do know where your at because you sure did love you some Jesus. The kids and I are going to have you a little party today then this weekend were gonna have a bigger one to celebrate your birthday and fathers day. You loved parties and presents. You always had a list of what you wanted like a kid and we would get you everything on it. You had a heart of gold. Happy Birthday in Heaven Billy.

Life will never be the same again. We always made holidays great with you and us now there just filled with lost and loneliness. I don't know how we've survived this year. Its been full of tears and sorrow. Your our everything Billy and we were yours. We four loved each other so much. Were very blessed in knowing that you knew how much we love you and that we knew how much you loved us. That was something no one can take away or even compare to. We were an extremely tight family we didn't let anyone interfere with the love we shared. You always said you wished you knew me in school that way we would of got to be with each other longer. God finally got us where we needed to be which was together. It was love at first sight we both felt it. It was breathtaking. What we wouldn't give to see you again and I know we will because God says so. We love and miss you so much. Happy Heavenly New Year my heart ❤️. “ We're dying inside today baby. Were trying to fight back the tears but it's impossible. How did this happen to us. Me You Jakobe and Reagan were supposed to grow old together. To never be parted. We four shared an unbreakable bond. Oh how we adored and loved one another. We weren't just family we all were best friends. You always said God made the best decision when he made us family. I wonder everyday why he separated us. What the reason is that we have to suffer this much. Our love was a once in a lifetime love so rare that nobody but God could separate us. You taught us so much over the years but most importantly you taught us love for one another that is out of this world. I know when it's our turn your gonna be their waiting at the gate arms wide open a huge goofy smile on your face. I can't wait to hold you in my arms and kiss those amazing lips. I always said you were the best kisser ever and that's the truth. You were an amazing human husband father to me Jakobe and Reagan. We won't be celebrating Christmas again until we're with you. Its no way it could ever be the same. We never took down the Christmas Tree from last year because it's the last thing you put up before becoming sick. It will stay up for eternity until we leave this earth to be with you my beautiful husband. Billy it's so hard to continue on when your not here. We hardly leave the house anymore. What's the point when our hero isn't with us. We know your watching over us from above. I also know that your taking very good care of our daughter Brandi. I'm so proud of the way you loved her and you became her dad not just her stepdad. You said she's yours because she came from me so you adopted her right into our lives. And mom and dad I know they were so glad to see you when you walked through those pearly gates. They thought they was nothing better than having you as a son. You became their son when we married. Our family grew into the biggest and happiest ever. I sure bet you had alot of crowns when you arrived because your heart was so kind and loving ❤️ They will never be anyone better than you our love for you were and are always will be our everything. Thank you Billy for years of love for us. You molded us into you which is a wonderful blessing. Every time I'm out and run into someone we knew they would speak of how we had that unspeakable love for each other that showed all over our face and how our eyes just gleamed love for one another. We love and miss you more and more everyday baby. Were ready to come home to you and be one big happy family again. Until then baby were right here grieving our loss. We love you more than life itself. ❤️ Forever You and Me and Jakobe and Reagan. Jenefee sure cries for you she sits on the dresser next to your picture and urn and meows and awful cry. My beautiful husband and the best dad in the world Billy Wells was called home to be with Jesus The pain hasn't gotten any better. The anxiety is real. Me Jakobe and Reagan are still in shock that Billy is no longer with us

It's so hard to phantom that it's been a year that we endured this pain.

Billy Wells ! You my darling are the love of our lives and nothing can take that from us. Were so lucky to have been part of each others lives. If love alone could of only saved you. We will never say goodbye to you it's just until we see you again in Heaven. We love and miss you so much. I remember your words exactly before they intubated you

You said I want everything done and that if something happened to make sure Jakobe and Reagan knows how much daddy loves them. Then you said I love you so much. I was screaming no and you and doctor said you would be ok but you wasnt. You got sicker everyday. You were dying and we were to inside. We navigate through the day hoping and begging God to bring you back but in reality we know you cant.

Billy love his wife and kids. He was the best father to them. I've known Melinda and Billy over 15 years and not once did Billy ever mention any other kids to me. I Pray for each of you all for peace and comfort during this time.

Roseann Rose this is kristie Billy sister you don't need to say these things that you said back to my niece because idk if my brother did or didn't tell you he had four biological children from his first marriage or not and even if he didn't you don't say things like this to rub it into his kids faces but idk as I said I'd Bill did or didn't tell you but I assure you my brother Billy Wells jr most definitely has four children their names are Morgan ,Kristen,Cameron and Nathan he also had two children that came into his life through Melinda and he also loved those two as they were his bit sometimes we don't know the store behind things and therefore we don't need to say things we don't know about not only does Bill have four children he also has six grandkids two girls and four boys and their names are Leeci,Gavin,McKenzliegh, Sadie,Bentley&, Wesley

“ *He is survived by his actual children, daughter Morgan and son in law Colton McGill, daughter Kristen and son-in-law Chris Gibbs who recently welcomed a daughter, Sadie who he unfortunately never got to meet. His son Cameron and his children Leevi, Gavin and McKensleigh Wells. His son Nathan and his children Bentley and Wesley Wells.
He wasn't the father we hoped he could be but we loved him regardless and waited with open hearts. I hope now he can find peace and those that loved him can as well.*
