“ I wish I could have visited with Charles one more time cause the last time I talked to him was way back in 1959 or 60. I really had a lot of fun when we visited Virginia from California. It's a memory that I will never forget.

“ I was program director at Colony House and Morningside for several years before I returned to full-time teaching. Charles was always so pleasant and came to activities which engaged him. He was kind and interested. We all admired him. May God be with all of you.

“ Charles had such faith and determination to overcome the great disappointments and tragedy he suffered at such a young age. He served others in his church & in the Lions Club. If we could just see him now - Free indeed. I give God thanks for his life and witness.
