Although I met Claudia a short five years ago, it seems I have known her much longer. We shared stories of life on the farm and, since I was born and raised in the White Shoals Community, we knew many of the same people/families. Claudia was one of the sweetest ladies that I have ever known. Prayers for the family.

Aunt Tootie as we called her, always had a word of love and encouragement for those that she noticed were struggling or a little lost. She would have just the right words to lift you up and encourage you to keep going. She was a blessing everywhere she was. ❤️
