“ Cody you were such a sweet kid and had so much going against you with respect to the circumstances that prevailed in your early life. None of those circumstances were your fault and none of us get to choose the situation we're born into. I wish I could have done more and I hope that anybody in your life that finds themselves in a similar situation of despair will summon every last bit of strength within them to want to live. Maybe it would have been as simple as a change of scenery? We'll never know. If there's truly a place called heaven, you deserve a chance to know the rest and peace that is supposed to be found therein.

“ We send our deepest sympathy to Cody's family. I always had a soft spot in my heart for Cody since Jack and I move to Virginia. Cody was very tenderhearted with us. Our hearts hurt that Cody passed at a young age. Peace be with you.
