“ All my memories of Dale are good ones. We all grew up in Cadet and his Mother Edith was my father's sister and even after I left there, when my sister Shirley and I would go back to Big Stone Gap, we always went to Edith's and we usually got to see Dale and catch up on how everyone was doing. The last time I saw Dale was at his sister Peggy's funeral and we had a good talk. After my sister Shirley passed away, I called him and we talked for quite awhile. I always loved him and my prayers are with Margaret and his family. I know that he is at peace now. Emma Johnson
