“ You’ve been my best friend since we were kids. You’ve been with me almost my entire life. You have the biggest heart of anyone I’ve ever known. I remember always fussing because I felt like people took advantage of that. But it didn’t matter because you always gave 100% and helped anyone and everyone. You kept me sane when I was losing my mind over work, family, anything really. You’ve spent years listening to my endless rants and would validate my feelings and talk me down when I needed it. You’ve been my everything. My best friend, my family, just my everything. I don’t know what we will do without you. I promise I’ll take care of your mom. She won’t ever be alone. We will miss you every day until we get to see you again, and I know you’ll always watch over us. I love you.

“ David would always call me shorty in school because of course I was a short girl and still am to this day. The last time I seen David was the day we graduated high school because we sat beside of each other alphabetically. It seems as we grow up and get older that we lose touch with one another. Rest in peace David. You was always a kind and loving person.

“ My handsome baby boy, I love you more than life itself. I know you knew & felt that. You've always been such a kind hearted, loving soul. Such an easy child to raise. I've always been so very proud of you. I Thank you God for allowing me to be his Mother. You were my Earth Angel. I know in my heart that you've earned your wings and are flying high with all the other beautiful Angels. Rest In Peace my sweet, loving son. I'll love you & hold you in my heart for eternity
