I first met Dixie when her husband was in Hospice. I had the honor of taking care of him. I later met Dixie again when she started her nursing career at LCCH. I had the privilege of working with her for nearly 20 years at LCCH and SMHS. Dixie was one of a kind. She was genuine. So caring and giving. Dixie was always there when someone needed a friend. This world will be dark without her. She was kind, living and so much fun to be around. She always thought of others before herself. Prayers for her family as they start a life without her.

“Dixie was most caring friend nurse and person I know. We always had a great working family at the hospital. You never saw Dixie mad she was always smiling. She was a great friend and we had many great times together. One time in particular Dixie, Lucy, Lisa and myself were going to Dr. Couch wedding. We stopped at Dollar general on the way and I was getting back in car with one foot in Dixie started backing up. I hollered stop I'm not in and we laughed most of the way to the wedding. We had some wonderful times getting together as a group and going out to eat. We would reminisce about all the great times we had working together as a group and the funny things that had happened over the years. She was my sister at work and part of my family. Dixie you will be missed so much and I love you my friend.

I first met Dixie as a caretaker of her husband. Dixie drew you in with her warm spirit & caring attitude. I remember fondly the meals she would plan at LRMC. We all would bring a dish and gather around the table for laughter and fellowship. Dixie had a way of making people feel like family. Goodbye my sweet friend.

I met Dixie when she started at LCCH she was smart caring nurse. She valued her job, family, and friends. we enjoyed many days working together. Dixie would bring food she had made to share when we worked weekends. Dixie was an outspoken nurse if she believed in it she stood her ground. I personally admired that quality she had. Dixie you will truly be missed you touched many lives.

I called her, "Little Pixie Dixie" and would tell her she was like the small candy bars, "fun-sized". Loved her grape salad and something when she would make it, she would bring me some down to the pharmacy. Loved her, she will be missed. My prayers go out to all the family.
