“ To all of Evelyn's family,

We are so sorry for the loss of the woman we knew, according to Westin, as "Grand-mudder." She was such a strong lady, both in body and in spirit, and I know that she will be missed by you all. We (Kevin and Janet) are so thankful to have met her, and we pray you can find comfort in knowing that she is with Westin, and with the Lord she loved and served so well. Her earthly chains are gone, and the Lord has set her free; she is truly in the presence of His Amazing Grace.

May God, friends and family comfort you all until the day you are reunited with Evelyn in Heaven.

*With love and prayers,
Janet, Kevin, Michael & Christopher McCann*

“ I remember how Aunt Evelyn used to try to make all her children happy by making all their fav foods. That meant sometimes making 3 kinds of potatoes at one meal so all would be happy. She really loved her children.

Im so sorry for her loss for my cousins. I know this is a very sad time for you.
