

Fannie (Walker) Legge

March 7, 1927 - October 2, 2022

Big Stone Gap, Virginia

“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven” Ecclesiastes 3:1

Fannie Walker-Legge was born on March 7, 1927, to the union of the late Willis & Sophia Walker in Coaling, Alabama.

Fannie confessed that Christ was her Lord and Savior at an early age and became a member of New Asia Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend G.W. Sloan. Later in life she married William Knox Legge.

Fannie was initially employed as a substitute teacher in Coaling, Alabama. She then moved to Cumberland, Kentucky and worked at Mack’s Café, which was owned by her uncle. After moving to Big Stone Gap, Virginia she met her husband, William Knox Legge and became co-owner and operator of Knox’s Café in Big Stone Gap. Fannie was a member of First Baptist Church on Wyandotte Avenue in Big Stone Gap. She was known for her cooking and dressing with style.

Fannie closed her eyes and entered into heavenly rest on October 2, 2022, at Norton Community Hospital, Norton, Virginia.

Fannie was preceded in death by her husband, William Knox Legge, Sr.; her parents, Willis & Sophia Walker; son, Adrian Eugene Legge; stepson, William Knox "Bo" Legge, Jr.; six brothers, Raymond Moore, Wallace Walker, Walter C. Walker, McKinley Walker, Charles Walker, Oscar Walker; and one sister, Bessie Walker Parker.

Fannie leaves to cherish her memories two brothers, Owens (Barbara) Walker, Leslie (Yolanda) Walker, both of Atlanta, GA; two sisters, Gesna Kennedy of Tuscaloosa, AL, Cora (Rosco) Roberts of St. Louis, MO; two grandchildren, Cara (Rafael) Madrigal of Norton, VA, Caresa Legge and husband Henock Montcho of Wise, VA; four great grandchildren, Kamilah, Kamiya, Camilo, Kyella; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and numerous friends.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday, October 15, 2022, at 1:00 P.M. at Holding Funeral Home (17 E. 3rd. St. N. Big Stone Gap, Virginia) with Pastor Jimmy Mitchell Officiating. Interment will follow in the Oakview Cemetery, Big Stone Gap. Nephews and friends will serve as pallbearers.
