I remember your dad and mom very well, Dixie. We would attend the Lion Club's parties at the Ramada Inn in Duffield where we had such good times together. Then there is you! We have always been friends as long as I can remember you. Still the same! Please know you are always close to our hearts and in our thoughts! Please remember we are just a call away!*

*Dear Glenna & family,
Sorry for your loss of someone dear. You will be in our hearts & prayers. We have many happy memories of Frank from our exercise class at Lifestyles on stone drive. Before our class we had the best conversations with Frank, always joking, he had a great sense of humor. We always exercised right behind him. After the gym closed most of us went our separate ways. Rest in peace dear friend.

Dear Glenna: Paul and I are heartbroken to learn of Frank's passing. I got to know him when we were in Silver Sneakers. He was always so thoughtful and helpful and a joy to be around. He adored you and "his" babies! We will keep you and your family in our prayers for comfort and peace.
