“ *mommy,
I LOVE YOU FOREVER IN MY HEART
WHAT IS A MOTHER.
WHAT IS A MOTHER
A MOTHER IS SO KIND AND DEAR
A MOTHER IS SOMEONE WE NEVER HAVE TO FEAR.
SHE HEARS OUR PRAYER,SHE ALWAYS CARE.
THAT IS WHAT A MOTHER IS TO ME.*

“ I knew Helen as Mrs. Barnett, the mother of my grade school friend, Angela. I can't say that I knew her very well, but I love that she raised Angela to be the fun, happy, beautiful person that I still call a friend. I know "Mrs. Barnett" will be missed, but her impact on the lives of her loved ones endures.

“ Mrs. Barnett, otherwise known as Mom to me, was a second mother. I spent many a pleasant weekend with her and the family when Angela and I were young girls and she'd invite me over for a special occasion. Mom B and I had several good talks like mother and daughter. She was a strong woman and had a feisty spirit. She will be missed not only by her family, but her extended family as well; those of us who called her Mom because she had a lot of love to share.

“ We were former neighbors who stayed in contact with each other because we shared the love of Jesus Christ together as well as prayers. May The Lord Jesus Christ continue to keep and bless you each. In Jesus Name

“ I was a member of St. Augustine for many years until I moved to SW Va. in 2008. It is ironic that she was from this area. While I attend Mass in Jenkins KY (St. George) now, I have attended Fr. Tim's churches as well. You will find him to be a warm and loving priest to deal with. My thoughts and prayers will be with your family.
