“ We met Jeris 20+ years ago at Muir's Chapel Church and she remained her sweet, caring self until her death. Jeris was a good & faithful friend. She was so humble and loved her life. She was thoughtful and kind and generous. Life to her was family and church and doing good deeds like cooking or sending cards to others. She was an example of a Southern lady that shared her faith and practiced her Christianity. Thank you Jeris for showing us how to live! Prayers and love to Ed and family.

“ Ed and family, I am so sad to hear that Jeris has gone ahead of us. I have so many fond memories from work and from all of her kindnesses. She honored me with a wedding shower so many years ago and I fondly review her in my photos often. We will all miss her now but see her again when we're called home. I will pray for you as you grieve and send warm hugs from Florida.
