I am Jim's next door neighbor and am greatly saddened by his passing. Jim was as good of a man as there ever was and I will greatly miss him. Prayers for his family! I will miss this humble, hard working family man!

After we built our house across from Jim's, he was one of the first people to welcome us. He would always stop and speak. His smile and friendly personality made him the special person he was. God only takes the best they say. No more pain. RIP
