“ John came into my life through work he did for me and family members. John and I grew close as we worked together and got to know each other. I found him to be a kind, caring, sweet, hardworking, young man who loved his family, his friends and who wanted above all to be a good father and worked hard to achieve that. John will be deeply and truly missed by those who knew the person he really was. I count myself as privileged to have called him friend and hope his family can find solace in the fact that he loved them deeply.
