“ Joyce was one of my Sunday school teachers at Durhams chapel in crackers neck . I was in her teen class. I remember many times her inviting our teen class into her home on the mountain she once lived on. The bonfires and fellowship will always be a big part of my memories. I was much older before I became a Christian ,but Joyce was apart of planting a seed for my future path in the Lord. Praying for Joyce’s family and friends.

I'm so sorry to hear about Joyce. She was a godly woman. I really liked hearing her speak in church. I will never forget her giving me a speech on me not coming on Sunday mornings to church after I had started coming to church. A sermon that I needed to hear. I know that she is resting with our lord now and she is a peace. Love and prayers to you all.
