“ I am blessed to have known June Mitchell Burney, your mother and grandmother. Her house and Big Mama's house was only a few of the places that our parents let us go play. Ms. June was happy to watch the kids playing around in the yard, myself and my sister Von was in the "mix." She enjoyed reading and swapping books with Von and others. We have precious memories of those days and I pray that all the memories that you have of your loved one will sustain you in the days ahead. Ivy Jackson Adekoya

“ So very sorry to hear on Ms. Burney passing. We were very privileged, blessed and honored to have lifted up the Name of Jesus with Ms. Burney for many years while traveling around the region with the group "Changed". She always greeted everyone with a kiss on the cheek and expressed Agape love to everyone that she encountered. Ms. Burney will be greatly missed here on earth but the angels in Heaven have gained a brand new voice that will continue to uplift the Name of Jesus! Our thoughts and prayers of comfort go out to the family and to those that called her friend.
