

Karen Sue Cox

November 15, 2025

Karen Sue Cox – Jonesville, VA

Karen Sue Cox, 65, of Jonesville, Virginia, passed away peacefully on November 15, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

Karen was born in Harlan, Kentucky, the daughter of Walter and Brenda Fuson, both of whom preceded her in death. She devoted her life to caring for others and studied to become a respiratory therapist. Through her work, she made a meaningful impact on countless lives and was known for her compassion and strong advocacy for individuals suffering from respiratory illnesses.

Karen loved spending time at the lake, enjoying the company of her friends, and cherishing every moment with her family. Her kindness, warmth, and gentle spirit will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Jerry Wayne Cox.

She is survived by her daughter, Jane Leslie Cox; her son, Christopher Jared Cox; and her grandchildren, Kylee Arden Haley, Peyton Jerred Cox, and Macy Jaide Ewing, along with other close relatives and friends.

All services will be private.

An online registry is available for the family at www.holdingfuneralhome.com

Holding Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements for the family of Karen Sue Cox.

“ Shared a lot of miles and laughs with Karen. If she was your friend, she was ride or die. She really cared about all the coal miners we saw and tried to make a difference in their lives. She is finally reunited with Jerry and will be telling him a lot of stories, especially about the kids and her grandbabies. □
