“ *To Ed:
Laura and I became close during her many visits and stays at Port Orange Rehab over the past yrs. I grew to love her and was in awe of her strength in fighting against her pain and many ailments. She and I would do exercises to keep up her strength in her arms/hands to assist in her "sit to stand" and bed positioning. She always put all she had into it and it paid off because in no time she was returning home to be with you, the love of her life. You will see her again and now she's free of all her pain and misery. Cyndi*
