Obituary for Linda Diane Hoilman Bayse

Linda Diane Hoilman Bayse, 76, of Big Stone Gap, Virginia, passed away peacefully at her home on Wednesday, October 15, 2025, and went to be with Jesus.

Born November 9, 1948, in Big Stone Gap, she was the daughter of Landon Hoilman and Lillian Virginia Hoilman.

Linda was a lifelong resident of Big Stone Gap, where she worked hard, loved deeply, and was known for her kind and generous spirit. She retired from Rogers Trucking, where she enjoyed a long and fulfilling career.

She is survived by her sister, Lisa Ann Hoilman, of Big Stone Gap; her companion Randy Hollinger, her two daughters, Tracy Dawn Morrison of Big Stone Gap, VA, and Kristi Reneé Frazier of Louisiana her grandchildren, Chelsie Isom (Donnie) of South Carolina, and William “Thorne” Morrison (Kayla) and Tyler Keaton Morrison, her great-niece Lilliana Hoilman great-grandchildren, Alivia Renee Morrison and Vayda Mae Frazier. She shared a special bond with her granddaughter Chelsie.

Linda shared a passion for truck driving, beach trips, and life's simple pleasures. Her favorite place was the beach, where she often said, "That's my little bit of Heaven on Earth."

Linda's smile was contagious, her laugh unforgettable, and her love unwavering. She will be truly missed by her family and by all who were blessed to know her.

Linda was a woman of faith, and her family finds comfort in the words of Scripture:

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain."

– Revelation 21:4

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted."

– Psalm 34:18

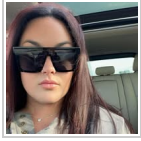

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." – John 14:27

Linda was deeply loved and will be remembered for her warmth, compassion, and steadfast devotion to her family.
