“ I love you so much mamaw. I think about you often. I miss you more and more every day. It's been two years already and its still just as hard living this life without you. I am doing good though. I have been through a lot since. So much I wanna tell you about 🙏 but I know I'll get my chance one day. You were always the person I would vent to and talk about everything with. I miss us cutting up and planning our trip to Hawaii. I drank peach nehi the other day just for you. I miss you. 😭🙏 I'll see you again one-day. Take care of her Lord. She's a precious soul.

“ Linda and I were best friends in high school we spent a lot of time together we laughed play jokes on each other and we cried together she was a terrific woman.her smile would always brighten your day if you were having a bad day she knew how to make you smile.when I got to talk to her she always mention about the Lord and how that he would help her through her problems. My prayers are with the family may God lead you and guide you through this difficult time that you're facing
