“ I met Linville and his wife Rose when they came to Michigan for a visit. They wanted to go to a casino, so along with his daughter Connie we took them to Mt Pleasant in Central MI, we decided to have dinner at the buffet, and Linville couldnt figure out what he was eating, it turned out to be the garnish they used on the buffet to make it look nice, when we told him what it was he said " well no wonder I couldnt chew it." We had a good laugh, still to this day we laugh about that. Thank you Linville for having a great sense of humor! Rest in Peace Sir!

“ Dad , I will never forget you teaching me to fish. The day I caught my first fish. I waited all day for that fish . You cast my pole for me over and over again. I waited and waited . I finally caught that 19 inch carp with your help reeling it in we both almost fell in the water . You were so proud , as was I.
