

Mrs. Lois Jean Gilley

June 23, 1931 - October 15, 2015

Jacksonville, FL

Lois Jean (Morris) Gilley, 84, passed away on October 15, 2015, after a long battle with cancer.

She was born in Derby, Virginia, on June 23, 1931, to Charles Hayes and Nancie 'Hall' Morris.

She was married on July 19, 1956, to Donald Eugene Gilley of Big Stone Gap, Virginia. She was a devoted mother and homemaker, teaching kindness and generosity to all those who were blessed to know her. She brought a smile and laughter with her everywhere she went. Slow to anger and quick to forgive, through her example, she taught those around her the importance of serving others. In her youth, she played the organ at the United Methodist Church in Derby. Throughout her life she continued to praise God and delight her family through her gift of music.

She was preceded in death by her husband Donald Eugene Gilley, her brothers Fred, James, Roy and Carl Morris, and her sisters Edith Gillenwater and Mabel Morris.

She is survived by her sister Gladys Cox, her daughters Donna Flores and Nancy Critzer, and her sons Clint, Jessie, Pat, Mike, David, and Donald Wayne Gilley. She is also survived by her grandchildren Lindsay Jackson, Joani Jarman, Crystal Meade, Michelle Gilley, Christopher and Chase Gilley, Jessica Alfonso, Douglas, Patrick Jr., Stephen, Andrew, Grace, Jack, Tyler, and Hayden Gilley and fifteen great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday (Oct. 24, 2015) at Holding Funeral Home (17 E. 3rd St., N.) in Big Stone Gap, VA.

The funeral service will be conducted at 1 p.m. in the funeral home chapel.

Burial will follow in the Glencoe Cemetery, Big Stone Gap.

Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Mom, Missing you everyday. They say it gets easier as time goes by...not so, even though We know you are in Heaven (beyond the sunset) and we will see you again, it is no more easier then it was the day you went home to the Lord.. I was just watching your video of you playing the piano, "beyond the sunset" and it is so beautiful, just like you. Miss you, love you and will see you again some day. Love Nancy.

"IM FREE"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.

I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when i heard him call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things i too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've favored much, good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now; HE SET ME FREE!

"Should my heart break and the grief spill out, it would flow over the entire earth, it seems, and yet, no one would ever see it"

Missing you terribly with a broken heart; I am the Queen of this horrible thing called grief. My dear, sweet Mother...I have to somehow learn to let go of this grief in order to move forward in this life; letting go means dying a little. In the process, I believe we are created new and awakened fresh, to the source of our being. Great peace is found in little things called busy-ness.

Slowly but surely, I am evolving into a new day, every day, little by little, with the brightest of sunshine rising in the heavens, a new day will rise upon us. "Sparkle and shine", sweet Mother of mine.

Love Nancy.

*I want to hold my mothers hand, the way she held mine. Like she would never let go.
I want to hug my mother the way she hugged me, like she would never see me again.
I want to look into her eyes the way she looked into mine.
As if she saw me from beginning to end.
I want to be the person she envisioned. A good father, husband, brother, and son.
I want to hold my mothers hand one day, the way she held mine.
And I promise mom, I will never let go.*

“ Lois Gilley, you were the sweetest, kindest, most gracious mother in law I could have ever wished for. I take comfort in knowing you love the Lord and you are one of his precious angels watching over us. I am hopeful that you found and are united with your husband who you haven't seen in over thirty years. Together you both had eight wonderful children who loved you dearly. I will forever remember your inspiring words and smile!!!

*Love always,
Debbie*

“ My Grandmother Mrs. Lois Jean Gilley was an amazingly beautiful person. She never expected anything from anyone and would show such enormous appreciation at even the smallest gesture. I will truly miss talking with her and coming to visit. There was nothing better as a kid than waking up to her homemade biscuits and gravy. She loved pulling out her photo albums and telling me all about my ancestry and showed me through her actions how important family is. Our memories are many and meaningful I am thankful for all the time we spent together, and every laugh till you cry moment. It will not be the same going home and not being greeted by her big smile and signature hug. Until we meet again I love you Grandma.

“ Mom,

I love you , and although you did not birth me. You couldn't be anymore a Mom to me than you have been.

I have been part of your family for over 31 yrs, and I have known your love, kindness, forgiveness and friendship for even longer.

Through you, you wonderful person, I have your son as my husband. And through him we have 2 beautiful children and a grand child. Thank you.

You are the best Mom, Grandma, and Great grandma to many.

You will be forever in our hearts, thoughts and souls.

You are the Mother/Woman of a great legacy, that will live on forever

We love you

“ Dear Mom,

We are missing you but know that you are in a better place. No more pain and suffering.

We share so many great memories together, Vacations to Disney World, Gatlinburg, Virginia, and so may other places. Never missing a baseball game, a band practice, a graduation, a family get together, and so much more...YOU were always there!

You were a big part of our lives and your spirit will live in us forever.

Thank you for your kindness and love, for you were our Angel here on earth. You gave us strength to be good and kind and always encouraged us to stay grounded in our faith for Jesus Christ our Lord and for that I will be forever grateful.

I miss you.

Love Gregory

“ My precious mama and I held on tightly to the promises of Isaiah 40:31, Isaiah 55:12 & Psalm 9:1-2.

I wrote these scriptures out and she would get up in the middle of the night and turn her little blue flashlight on to read them.

Isaiah 40:31 but those who wait upon the Lord will RENEW THEIR STRENGTH, they will SOAR on wings like eagles; they will RUN AND NOT GROW WEARY, they will WALK AND NOT FAINT.

My heart is breaking at this time BUT the Lord is faithful to fulfill HIS promises and I know with unwavering confidence that she is renewed, soaring, running, walking, rejoicing & worshipping the King of Kings Jesus Christ.

Nancy all our hearts are broken . But I think you will be so Blessed, so Full of all the wonderful memories you had with Mom. All your trips, zany outings, goofy pictures, just sitting and spending the days together doing ordinary things. I know it's not the same, but I hope the memories comfort you dearly.
