“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Lola, I always new her to be a kind loving person and I am saddened that she has been made to look other wise in death by her own children. I hate the so many's last memory of her is that she didn't want her own child in her obituary. So sad

“ I worked with Lola many years ago and she was such a kind person and would be so ashamed at what has been done. To leave her child out of her obituary is shameful. No matter the relationship, the time, how you feel or think ,that is still her child. Lola would not have wanted that . Such a terrible way to mark her passing

I understand you get to grieve too, but you chose to lose the last 12 years with mom and dad all on your own so throw whatever you want into the internet, I honestly hope that helps you. But I would ask that you do it on your own social media and not to taint our mothers obituary. I hope you find the peace you are looking for

Wow. You know why I wasn't in their lives. You know it more than anyone. That doesn't change that fact that you all decided to be spiteful and act like I never existed because I did and do. I was her last born child and the one who has her middle name. So I will post so everyone knows that she had more family than just the ones listed. And they can see how dirty it was to do another human being that way.

“ If there is one thing my momma taught me its that parents and children grow together alot throughout the years. My mom had 5 children before I came along and we both still made mistakes. But one thing I can say is that when she needed me I was there. And when I needed her she was there. No matter the fight we had before. I have learned that is what unconditional love is. I can only hope that i can pass down the same unconditional love to my children as my momma passed to me. I love you momma! You'll always be in my heart. Till I see you and my brother again ill be missing you both With all my heart xoxo
