“ Been praying for your family since last week. My heart is so sad to say goodbye to precious Lori. Her smile was the same as in the picture here, gentle and loving, and so was her personality. May the Lord be with you all.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one, Lori. It breaks our hearts when death separates us from the ones we love so much especially when they are as young as Lori. The Bible reminds us that God sees our pain and sadness and has promised that soon,
"death will be swallowed up forever."(Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again.
(John 6:40) Until then, I hope the beautiful memories of Lori and these promises from God comfort you in the days to come.

“ First, to Rick and Linda, my deepest heart felt condolences to you.
May God give you strength to get to a place where you can celebrate Lorie's life.
I have many fond memories of our visits and what a loving person Lorie was. She and her sister, Cathy, have called me Uncle Joe for at least 35 years. Every time I saw her she would have the biggest smile, give me a big hug and say something nice to me. She will be MISSED.

I am heartbroken at the loss of Lori. She was such a beautiful young lady, inside and out. She always had a smile. My heart goes out to her family. She was loved by her mother-in-law, Betty Davis. My heart aches for her also. May God be with the family and give you peace.
