“ So sorry for the loss of this dear sweet lady. She was an inspiration to all who knew and loved her. Her beauty was inside and out. I'll always remember her sparkling blue eyes, sweet smile, beautiful face, and hair. I don't think I ever saw her not looking her best. She took much pride in how she looked. She had a warm heart and you were always welcomed in her home. I remember the years that we would go for visits. She would be up early in the morning preparing homemade biscuits and gravy. There was always plenty to go around, and if you stayed long enough into the day, you may even have them for lunch too. She loved her family very much. God richly blessed her with a long life, and I was blessed to be a part of her family. You will be missed Ms. Helen. RIP.

“ It is a honor & pleasure to be a granddaughter to such a loving sweet Granny. Every time I'd visit Granny always inquired about my walk with God and my salvation. She always wanted me to know that Jesus Loves me. She prayed for every child, grandchild, great, and great great grand child. Even those she had never personally met. She has generations of children and grandchildren spread all across the US. The last time I visited I told her I had accepted the call from God into ministry. The smile on her face was priceless. I loved her sense of humor. She always knew just what to say to make you laugh. I will cherish the memories I have of her always!

“ My granny was the strongest most amazing woman ever!!!! She gave birth to 18 children and because of her and God hundreds of us now LIVE!!! I was so blessed to get to see her almost everyday. She had the sweetest laugh and would just laugh for no reason so we all would start laughing!! She had the most pure, loving, kind baby blue eyes that were just filled with love. She could make you feel so very loved just by looking at you. I miss her so much, but I know that she is dancing and singing with her children and looking down over all of her remaining kids, grand kids, great and great great grand kids!!!

“ I have had this grand lady as a mother in law for a long time. I am so glad she was, I enjoyed talking to her. I always felt so welcome and she made her home ours when we visited. Our kids have a proud heritage knowing she was in it. I can picture the smile as big as the sky on her face looking at Jesus. Yay Mom!!!
