Mary was not only my cousin but also my friend. So hard to give up lifetime friends. I will miss our talks on the phone. Sometimes we would talk for an hour or more. In the last few years it is hard for both of us to get around so we called each other on a regular basis. We talked of everything from our childhood to our old age. My beautiful Mary you will be missed.

I have known Mary since she was a little girl. When I was in High School I worked at her parents dime store in Appalachia on weekends Mary always came in the store. Loretta Creech
