Mary, this is Jimmy Lawson. Neighbor in big stone gap that moved away in 1962. I was on line yesterday searching big stone gap and that is when I first learned of your passing. It saddened me greatly to say the least. I must tell you that you were and always will have a special place in my heart. I was much to shy to tell you at the time and even though we were very young, I must tell you that I was always madly in love with you and if not for my moving away I firmly believe we would have had a future life together full of all the wonderful things that surely would have come our way. I loved you then and I love you now. May God bless you in his kingdom and give you eternal happiness. Always, Jimmy lawson
