Blountville, TN; and his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Gary and Bonnie Snyder of Wise, VA.

The family will receive friends from 5 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday at Holding Funeral Home (17 E. 3rd St., N.) in Big Stone Gap, VA.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday in the funeral home chapel with Pastor Roger Jenkins and Rev. Travis Jenkins officiating.

“ I remember when Matt and I attended the Bristol race watching this young man bounce in his seat as the race went on. Afterwards as we were driving back he went on and on about his family, dreams and life.

We are left to want to wonder why and how. The answer is simple - God needed his servant home. Till we meet again my friend.

“ Dennis and I had the privilege of not only knowing Matt, but were blessed to worship with him many times in church, to hear him preach, and witness first hand the love and devotion he had to his God, his family, his church, and his friends. Dennis was blessed to have also worked with Matt. We extend our heartfelt love and condolences to all his family. If businesses are allowed in Heaven, I'm sure there will be a Bacon Restaurant on the corner of 1st and Glory! We will see you again, Matthew Bush!

“ Dearest Robin, Roy, Becca, Jackson and Paisley

We pray that this time of mourning is eased a little with all the love we are sending to you.

Our hearts are saddened by the loss of sweet Matthew. I know he loved the Lord and spread His word everywhere he went. His faith has inspired and lifted us in countless ways, particularly in recent weeks.

Heaven is brighter and our passed loved ones are rejoicing to have him with them.

We love you.
