“ I was so sorry to hear of Myrtle's passing. I grew up in the same neighborhood and knew her for years. She and my sister Shirley were the same age and your father Charles grew up right below us. I thought so much of both of them but I had not seen either one in years. I am sure that she is at peace now and I send my sympathy to each of her children and grandchildren. May God bless each of you. Emma Jean Collins Johnson, Blountville, TN.
