“ I'm really sorry for the loss of Corky. When I visited her in the nursing home, she was always so cheerful & delighted to have me & my co-visitor come to see her. She made sure beautiful flower arrangements for the church, a very talented lady used for the Lord's service. I know your hearts are at peace knowing she is with her Lord. God bless your family.

“ Corky was always willing to help with catering events at the church. What a willing servant of God she was! We have never forgotten her and Colby and the friendly way they were always willing to do anything you asked of them. May God comfort you dear family! We will see her again in heaven!!!
