“ Pat was a bright light to all of us who knew and loved her. She brought joy to many adults and children during her tenure with the Middlesboro-Bell County Public Library where she initiated a popular afternoon book club for youth. She continued to offer outstanding library services in her promoted position as Bell County Public Library's Bookmobile Librarian. Her sparkle was contagious and like no other. We loved her and missed her on our library team, but she was always in our hearts. A cup of tea, a touch of purple, flowers or the perfect rock will always remind me of my beautiful friend. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Hugs and love, Michele Lawson
