“ To one of the most caring, loving ladies I have ever known. She was our friend in good times and in bad, always by our side. She was like this with all of her friends and family. She was family to us and we will be there for Meagan whenever she needs us. WE love and will miss you, Pat, but we know you are rejoicing today!!

Meagan & family, I am so sorry to hear of Pat's death. She was a dear friend. I truly loved her. She was such fun to be with. We laughed so much when we were together. She was always late when meeting me for lunch, she always had a ready word of encouragement for me when I was down, she always had a ready prayer available for me, and she was always there to help me in my job. Did I mention "always"? That's Pat, always a friend and I will always love her. There was never a dull moment when she was around. I'm sure there is lot of rejoicing going on now in Heaven. Keep her alive by remembering all the wonderful things about her. That's my plan.

Oh Pat - such mixed emotions as I heard the news of your passing. Mixed because of knowing I will never see that smiling face and sparkling eyes on this side but joyful because I know how you loved your Savior. The times we would sit and talk about our trying times, but through it all, we knew our precious Lord would never forsake us and in Him, we would get through whatever came about. I love you and miss you my sweet, sweet friend. You inspired me, you always made me feel special and I will never forget you dear friend.
