“ Sorry Diana, I wasn't there for you, your mother, and our family. Peggy was always the one that kept me apprised of our family matters. If I had known that she passed on I would have been there for you and our family, for that I'm very sorry and promise to be there to see you ASAP. I began working on our family tree on your mothers profile to try and help relieve some responsibility. I know it isn't much, but that is the best Im able to do considering I just found out. I know Peggy was having a really hard time, every time we came in for the holidays I made it a point to stop and see her and dad every since Mamaw Williams passed on. I just wanted you to know that I did stay in contact with her and checked in with her as often as possible. I believe your mother is in a better place now and there is no more suffering and I know she is happier looking down on you and her grandkids. You guys were everything to her, you and those kids were her entire world. So try to be happy that she can glee down upon you guys with out pain and suffering but with happiness and fulfillment. I love everyone and will be in as quickly as I can. With Love, David Williams.
