

Randall Steve Rogers

March 21, 1954 - June 30, 2013

Baltimore, MD

Randall Steve Rogers, 59, passed away on Sunday, June 30, 2013.

He was born in Big Stone Gap, VA on March 21, 1954 and lived most of his life in the Washington, D.C./Baltimore, MD area. He retired in February of 2011, as an union carpenter and worked at surrounding MD/DC/VA convention centers, preparing for various conventions and shows.

He was preceded in death by his father, Alfred Steve Rogers; his mother, Beatrice E. Williams; and his sister, Beverly Ann Mills.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Christina M. Impallaria; two grandchildren, George Patrick Impallaria and Viviana Maria Impallaria, all of Glen Burnie, MD; a sister, Lola Marie Brockman of Chestertown, MD; two nieces, April R. Kuni of Richmond, VA and Amanda Michelle Little of Killeen, TX; one nephew, John W. Brockman of Annapolis, MD; three great nieces; five great nephews; and one great-great niece.

A memorial graveside service will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday (Sept. 28, 2013) at Glencoe Cemetery in Big Stone Gap, VA with Pastor Ronnie Mutter officiating. The family and friends will meet at the cemetery by 10:50 a.m. on Saturday (Sept. 28, 2013).

To view the obituary online and offer condolences, please visit www.holdingfuneralhome.com.

Holding Funeral Home is serving the Rogers family.

Tribute Wall

“ Randall Steve Rogers

October 07, 2023 at 10:50 AM

“ You were always my little brother; I miss you. I'm sure you're roaming all over Heaven enjoying everything you see. I'll meet you there one day and we can roam together. Love & miss you very much.

Lola Marie Brockman - December 10, 2013 at 08:09 AM