“ Robbie spent countless hours with us when we opened Rose Hill Music and Thrift Store. He loved hanging out and talking with us and my mom would cook things for him and bring it down to the store. I will always cherish the wonderful memories of this sweet man! Rest in peace Robbie, I miss you so much already!

Rob-o was the first person I met when I moved to Rosehill he would get on stage at the pool hall and sing any thing from Elvis. Rob-o was a huge Elvis fan he will be missed dearly it won't be the same driving through Rosehill and not seeing his smiling face sitting at the dollar store sign R.I.P. MY FRIEND ROB-O

Seemingly Robbie was always happy. Jim and I would give him a ride home occasionally. Robbie was always appreciative. We will miss seeing him. God loves his children and has called him HOME. To his friends and love ones: we are sorry for your loss.
