“ I can't remember how old we were, grade school I think, when Robert and I caught a couple chipmunks. We spent days laying on our stomachs with strings attached to traps trying to catch the little buggers. Finally, before we left the camp site up at good creek, we caught 2 of them. We each took one home and hid it in our rooms. Mine chewed it's way out of the shoe box I had it in and ran right up mom's plant leg while she was taking a nap on the couch. Those were the best of days!
Love you all,
Cindy
