“ We had some amazing times together while we were married. U taught me a lot about cars. Thanks to u, I could probably rebuild the engine in my Jeep. U gave me two amazing boys & I will forever love u for that. U will forever be in my heart. Rest in peace, Sammy. U have a place in my heart that no one will ever fill.

“ I remember all of us kids playing, getting in trouble for doing things we weren't suppose to. We all grew up together until Mommy Miller passed away and from then on our whole family split apart but I still kept you all in my heart!! I will still always love you and keep our memories close!
