“ She was our first cousin (half-first-cousin); her father was our mom's half-brother, Roy Roberts. Our mom was Ova Roberts, daughter of Willie Roberts and his last wife Mary Ethel Collier Roberts. I have never seen Sandra, but we corresponded by mail. And if my memory serves me, I sent her a copy of my Roberts Family History book. Willie Roberts had three sets of children with three wives. There were 18 children, but some did not live to adulthood. Roy Roberts died young. I once saw his grave on the farm down at Blackwater, Virginia. My mother showed me around Blackwater and where some of the family are buried. Sandra and I were excited to talk to each other, even if only by mail. I loved all of my mother's siblings and half-siblings. I have never counted up to see how many grandchildren that Willie Roberts had, but there is a slew of us. We mourn the loss of those who have our same blood coursing through their veins.
