“ A King that was ALWAYS humble and kind to me. I truly am at a loss for words, Shan. It's an honor to call you my Army Brat Brother. It's an honor to have chatted with you and embrace your words of wisdom. I know I'm not the only one feeling this loss the way that I am. My condolences to his family and friends. My prayers will always be with you and yours, my Negus. God needs you home and we are missing you VERY MUCH MY BROTHER. Rest in Power King. I'll be seeing you, bruh.

“ Thank you for 27 years of everything and especially our 3 greatest joys - Cahlil, Cay'an and Lindsay Christina. We even made it to be grandparents together. Jr and Cobie will miss you buying them happy meals and talking smack with them. I pray that you can make sure Cahlil is ok. He now has one parent in Heaven. Y'all killing Cay'an, Lindsay and I. 2 of you have left our family within 3 months. Father and son together again💔 this sickens me to no end. You wasn't suppose to leave. I took for granted that you and Cahlil would always be here. I love you both so much. Please watch over us and make sure we are comforted and safe.

I still can not believe this happened... I think back to when we were kids in Germany. We had the best time. The Heilbronn crew was the best crew and when we reunited on facebook it was like a dream come true, catching up with old friends. It's like nothing had ever changed. You were the big brother that I never had. Even up until the day you passed, I remember I shared something on my page and you found it so funny. No one else laughed but you.. LOL.. we had the same crazy sense of humor. Bro..I will cherish and love you always.
