“ My name is Kayla Brooks, I'm her granddaughter. My mom's side family always called her as Mamaw. It okay to be sad today because everyone and we always love her so much. Mamaw is wonderful mom, Aunt and sisters also grandma, Friend. We knew her is no suffer pain anymore, she is peaceful went to heaven with her first loves and sisters. I

I want talk about my favorite memories with mamaw, she is best delicious made breakfast biscuits and gravy in the morning.

She knew how to put warm up with 4 or 5 blankets in winter, when I was kid at her home has fireplace.

I was grown up and still, she said you are my baby always every time I come over or visited at her home.

Mamaw tried to her best commutation like write or few sign with me because I'm deaf. She is very patient and tried her best and loving me.

Mamaw always there for everyone in family also friends and be support and loving and cares too. We never forgotten about her in our memories is very cherish in our life. We miss and love her always and forever in our hearts.
